Making Terroristic Threats Arrest Made:

On 05-10-2023, Tupelo Police Officers responded to 527 Carnation Street (Salvation Army) in response to threats being made by an individual. Upon arrival, officers were informed that a suspect had threatened several individuals with bodily harm and also made threats to “shoot up” a nongovernmental relief agency. The suspect, who was located nearby, was taken into custody.

After further investigation, Willie J. Lynom (26 y/o male, Tupelo) was charged with Making A Terroristic Threat.

Tupelo Municipal Court Judge Weir set Lynom’s bond as $15,000. These charges will be presented to the Lee County Grand Jury.
