Press Release

ALL INDIVIDUALS ARRESTED ARE PRESUMED INNOCENT UNTIL PROVEN GUILTY

-----For Immediate Release-----

09-15-23

Burglary of a Vehicle and False Pretense Arrest Made:

On 07-10-23, at approximately 1521 hours, Officers with the Tupelo Police Department contacted an individual on South Gloster Street. The individual stated that their purse was missing from their vehicle. The same day, checks from the victim's purse were used to make a deposit into a suspect's account.

After further investigation, Ryan O. McClendon (32 y/o male, Tupelo), who was already in the custody of the Lee County Jail, was charged with Burglary of a Vehicle and False Pretense.

On 09-15-23, Tupelo Municipal Court Judge Weir set McClendon's bond at $35,000. These charges will be presented to the Lee County Grand Jury. McClendon is currently being held without bond on a previous Armed Robbery charge.
